MEMORIAL DAY

Exercises were held at the Mattapoisett Library at 2 P.M. on Memorial Day. The Fairhaven High School band opened the ceremonies with a stirring march. The opening prayer was given by the Rev. Jeremiah Casey, SS CC, of St. Anthony's Church. John P. Matthews, a student at Mattapoisett Center School, gave the Gettysburg Address.

Earle D. Wilson of Mattapoisett was the principal speaker of the program. Mr. Wilson spoke of the sacrifice of American men and women of the field of battle in the wars that the United States had fought. He brought out that our greatest battle is now being fought with a Communist foe in a cold war of deadly importance to our future progress as free men. He urged all citizens to join the battle as first class citizens. To oppose, to fight efforts by Communists and their dupes to destroy this country. Mr. Wilson spoke to his audience without reference to notes and the speech was the finest of its kind heard here by this reporter.

After the playing of the Star Spangled Banner a ceremony was held at the Veterans' Memorial with the placing of the wreath and a salute by the riflemen of the Legare marching unit.

A highlight of the parade was a new marching unit. The Blue Angels drum and bugle corps put in its first public appearance after a winter of practice. The boys aging from 7 to 12 were a great asset to the parade and were warmly applauded. Individual identification was made somewhat difficult owing to helmets that covered most heads to a point below the nose. However, as a unit the Angels were the hit of the day.

The parade marched to the wharf where ceremonies were held for those lost at sea. The marchers then went to Cushing Cemetery for exercises. Parade Marshals were Major Charles Morgan and George White. Marching units included men from the Coast Guard Cutter Legare, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Cub Scouts, Brownies, Benjamin Cushing Post VFW of Marion, the Fairhaven High School Band, the Blue Angels, auxiliary police and the Florence Eastman Post 280, American Legion, Mattapoisett, sponsors of the ceremonies.

After the parade refreshments were served to the marchers by the legion auxiliary.

ROCHESTER STUDENTS RECEIVE SCHOLARSHIPS

Miss Miriam Arenberg, daughter of Isaac M. Arenberg of New Bedford Road, Rochester, and the late Bernice Arenberg, has been awarded the Raymond T. Hartley $100 scholarship.

Miss Arenberg will graduate from New Bedford High School this month. She attended Rochester Memorial School and Normandin Junior High School, New Bedford. She has been accepted at Simmons College, Boston, Bennington College, Vermont and the University of Massachusetts at Amherst, Mass.

During her years at New Bedford High School, Miss Arenberg has been active in the Dramatic Club, member of the National Honor Society and Activities Editor for the yearbook for 1961. She has had a poem published in the National High School Anothology and received honorable mention for her exhibit in the Science Fair. She has also been a member of three pilot classes. A former Girl Scout, she achieved the curved bar rank.

In addition to maintaining a high scholastic rating, Miss Arenberg has found time to enjoy hobbies of painting, writing, gardening and domestic arts.

Miss Marcia Doane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Logan R. Doane, Jr. of Dexter's Lane, Rochester, is the recipient of a $50 Raymond T. Hartley Scholarship award. Marcia will enter Massachusetts General Hospital at Boston with the 1961 class.

Miss Doane has attended the Rochester Memorial School, Normandin Junior High School and will graduate from New Bedford High School this month.

At New Bedford High School Miss Doane was president of the Girls' League, secretary of the Student Council and a member of Allied Youth and Pep Squad. In addition to school activities, she is a proficient seamstress.

Miss Andrea Lee Doane, daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Doane of Hartley Road, Rochester, and the late Warren Doane, has been awarded a $50 Raymond T. Hartley Scholarship. Andrea has been accepted and will attend the University of Massachusetts. She will major in elementary education.

Miss Doane attended Rochester Memorial School, Normandin Junior High School and will graduate this month from New Bedford High School.

Her activities at New Bedford High School have included being a member of the National Honor Society, vice-president of the Senior Class and she received the DAR citizenship award this year. She is a Sunday School teacher and member of the First Congregational Church of Rochester.

Andrea is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Rodman Doane of Rochester. Her brother, Warren, attends Northeastern University.

Miss Rose Lopes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lopes of Ryder Road, Rochester has been awarded a $50 Raymond T. Hartley Scholarship. She has been accepted at Worcester State Teachers' College and will enter in September. She was also accepted at State Teachers Colleges at North Adams and Bridgewater.

Miss Lopes was active in New Bedford High School as a member of the French Club for three years and served as treasurer and secretary, and also a member of the Future Teachers of America. She taught Sunday School for her church, Sts. Martha & Mary of Lakeville.

At home Miss Lopes enjoys reading and loves to sew and cook.

The Raymond T. Hartley Scholarship is sponsored by the Rochester Woman's Club, and was created in 1945 in memory of Raymond C. Hartley, a casualty of World War II. His mother is a member of the Rochester Woman's Club. Chairman of the Scholarship Fund is Mrs. Timothy O'Brien and her committee is comprised of Mmes. Fred Church, Everett Hardy, Greenwood Hartley, Sr., Ward Benner and Henry Smith.

FELLOWSHIP PARTICIPATES IN SERVICE

Members of Pilgrim Fellowship of the First Congregational Church, Rochester participated at a Galilean service held at Ted Williams' Camp, Lakeville. Fellowships from the surrounding town's Congregational Churches all joined in the service. A cookout preceded the service. Going from Rochester were Robert Gonet, Geraldine Lawrence, Janice Lawrence, Norma Mello, Dianne Phillips, Patricia Butler, Joan LaPointe, Brian LaPointe, Anne Turcato, Ruth Pare, Sandra LaFleur, Allen King and Esther-Ann Chamberlain. Providing transportation were Mr. Gonet and the Pilgrim Fellowship advisors, Mrs. George A. Hill, Jr. and Daniel L. Hartley.

PLANS FOR THE BLUE ANGELS

Many of you had the opportunity to see the group of enthusiastic youngsters, The Blue Angels, Memorial Day. I am sure you will agree that they did a good job and it will be a unit Mattapoisett will be proud of. To complete our plans and to equip the rest of the boys with drums and piston bugles we need money. If you would care to help the youngsters out, they would greatly appreciate it. Please send your donation to the Blue Angels, Box 525, Mattapoisett. Any donation at all will help.

PARENTS OF SON

Mr. and Mrs. Ward A. Benner of Jason's Lane, Rochester are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son at St. Luke's Hospital, New Bedford. Sharing grandparent honors are Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Howcroft of Fairhaven and Mr. and Mrs. Ward E. Benner of Cushman Road, Rochester. The new baby has been named Warren Allen Benner and is welcomed by a sister.

MEMORIAL DAY RIVER RACE

High, fast water on the Mattapoisett River helped to make this year's boat race a record breaking affair. No less than eight teams bettered last year's record breaking effort of 2 hours 1 minute and 15 seconds. Repeating the win this year and breaking their own last year's record were David Lizotte of Rochester and John Makuch of Mattapoisett. The new record is 1 hour 39 minutes and 15 seconds for the better than 12 miles of river.

A great deal of interest was generated this year by the entrance of a girls' team from Mattapoisett. Miss Judith Furnans and Miss Barbara Harriman entered for the sport of it and were cheered in by the large crowd in the time of 4 hours 38 minutes and 40 seconds. We noted with interest that the attractive teenagers arrived at the finish line with not a hair out of place and their checkered jackets spotless. Not so the team of Thomas Hiller of Fairhaven and Eben Kunz of Mattapoisett. After a disaster somewhere along the route these two undaunted paddlers abandoned their swamped boat and paddled down the river in 2 inner tubes lashed together. This effort was in vain because the rules disqualify boatless contestants. However, the "never say die" spirit of the boys deserves plenty of admiration.

Finishing second were Earle O. Phillips, Jr. and Edgar Martin, both of Rochester, in 1 hour 51 minutes and 43 seconds. Other teams completing the race were Carol Tirrell and John MacGregor, both of Rochester, 1 hour 54 minutes; Arthur Benner and Thomas Gayoski, Jr., Rochester, 1 hour 54 minutes 45 seconds; Ben Hatch and Bob Hatch, both of West Wareham, 1 hour 55 minutes 20 seconds; Allen King and Walter Cleminshaw, Rochester, 1 hour 56 minutes 22 seconds.

Also, Carlton and Warren Vaughan, both of Mattapoisett, 1 hour 58 minutes 21 se-

AWARDS AND SKITS PRESENTED AT PACK MEETING

Highlights of Rochester Cub Scout Pack 30 meeting were presentation of awards and skits presented by two dens.

Cub Scouts Rickey Bearse, Richard Landis, Stephen Leach, George Leach and Albert Bosworth presented an Indian skit complete with costumes they made at the weekly den meetings. Headpieces, shields and blankets added to the realism of the skit which was under the direction of den mothers Mrs. Nellie Balzarini and Mrs. Jeanne MacNeill.

The second Indian skit was presented by Mrs. Althea Lawrence's den with Cub Scouts wearing burlap bags fashioned into Indian costumes, headpieces and warpaint. Cub Scouts taking part were Tyler Brown, Edward Cabral, Mitchell Jordan, Anthony Jordan, Victor Meservey, Louis Ouellette with Lincoln Brown in charge of the curtain.

Cubmaster Nathan Lawrence presented awards to the following Scouts: Kenneth Corriea, bear badge, silver and gold arrow on rank of bear; Dennis Beaulieu, lion badge; R. Landis, lion badge; Robert Phillips, silver arrow on rank of wolf; Kenneth Daggett, silver arrow on rank of wolf; David Pare, silver arrow on rank of lion and Edward Cabral, gold arrow on rank of wolf.

One year service star pins were presented to Cub Scouts Gifford Lawrence, James Duffy, Lance Alves and John Hayes.

Danny Ross led the Cub Scout promise.

rank, K. Corriea, bear rank and R. Landis, lion rank. Cubmaster Lawrence explained a Cub Scout has to complete all three ranks and Webelos for acceptance into Boy Scouts. Boy Scoutmaster Calvin R. Daggett presented the following boys neckerchiefs and welcomed into Boy Scout Troop 30: David Pare, Allan Maccarone, Peter Balzarini, Donald Reed and Merton Howes.

The Cubmaster announced registrations are now being accepted for Cub Scouts and re-registering of boys who plan to continue with Cubbing. Mr. Lawrence emphasized boys who do not plan to complete the year are requested not to register because of the expense involved.

The Blue and Gold banquet will be held this month the date to be announced shortly. Cubmaster Lawrence said starting in the Fall the Cub Scout Pack committee will no longer have the services of den mothers Mrs. Balzarini and Mrs. MacNeill and assistant Cubmaster Joseph A. Chamberlain. The Cubmaster said it is "with regret the services of these people will no longer be available to us". Mrs. Balzarini has served faithfully for four years as den mother and Mrs. MacNeill, two years. Mr. Chamberlain served for two years and was active in arranging trips and doing the necessary correspondence entailed for the trips. Mr. Lawrence mentioned Mrs. Chamberlain has assisted with many of the arrangements. Both Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain will continue to assist in planning trips for Pack 30.

A show of applause was received by all who have served Cub Scouting so faithfully.

It was announced approximately $50 was realized from the sale of candy and $53.40 from the sale of the Scout-o-Rama tickets. Top salesman in Cub Scouts of Pack 30 was David Pare who will be presented a prize at the Blue and Gold banquet. Cub Scout Pare received a round of applause.

Plans for a camping trip for Cub Scouts will be held in August said Mr. Lawrence at Camp Rayford.
